Final-year Journalism student at Universitas Padjadjaran with hands-on experience across multiple journalism formats, including broadcast, radio, field reporting, and multimedia storytelling. Proven track record in editorial leadership, having edited and overseen a six-month multimedia project and reported directly from the field on an advocacy piece about displaced Jatigede Dam residents. Also contributed to a journalism ethics innovation project built on AI. Led a 120-member student journalism organization for a full term, bringing the organization to win two FIKOM Awards 2025. Looking to apply and deepen these skills in a professional newsroom environment.
